

BUSINESS BULLETIN.

Notes, Advantages and Liberal Inducements offered by the Herald's Advertiser to Our Readers. Read This Column Before Purchasing Your Articles.

Say: Do you take this paper?

Do you ever have any money to spend?

And wouldn't you like to spend it where you can get the full worth of it?

Would you like to help us and better your condition too?

Are you an advocate of diplomacy?

If so, then patronize the advertiser in THE HERALD.

INSTRUCTIONS TO AGENTS.

Now this is the chance for our people to make big money by selling the Herald, but if you would like to sell this paper or continue in our service, you must abide by the following rules.

1st: You must not sell the papers on credit unless you intend to pay for them out of your own pocket.

2nd: You must remit every week, as it is just as easy to remit weekly as it is to wait for the end of the month, and in case you fail to do this, we will be compelled to drop you from our Agents list as we can't afford to carry any dead heads, and keep expense upon us.

3rd: You must cut out the date lines of every paper you have on hand unsold, and send them into us, and we will credit you up with them, and in case you fail to do this, we will charge you up with the full amount.

4th: You must get your orders into us by Saturday's, as we start out our agents packages on Mondays.

5th: After you will have sent in the date lines and remittance due us, you can then dispose with the old papers as you choose.

6th: You must send all money amounting to and over 50 cts by Money order, registered letter or postal note, and not by stamps, as we will return them.

7th: You will be required to pay 24 cts per copy for our paper, and can sell as many as you choose.

8th: Send us in no credit subscriptions, as we will not insert their names on our subscription list.

9th: When you fail to comply with the above rules, you may expect your name to be dropped from our agents list, and the public will be notified through our paper.

Our News Depots

Situated in Various Parts of the Country for the Convenience of our many Distant Readers.

Parties desiring to purchase the Langston City Herald, who are not subscribers to the same, can notice the following list of our authorized and responsible agents, and as a convenience we recommend your patronage to these news agents, thus helping them, yourself, and sustaining your race institutions.

Joseph Cleveland
Shreveport, La.

T. P. Turner.
Pulaski, Tenn.

Mr. L. Taylor, Bolivar, Tenn.
Mrs. Annie Townsend, Poplar Bluff, Mo.

CAUTION.

To our many readers we will say that we are responsible for transactions made by Agents whose names appear on the above list, and always look on our Agent's List for the name of the parties who deposit as our agent, and if you fail to find it you may rest assured that he or she is no authorized Agent for The Herald and are only frauds. Now bear this in mind in order that you may not be victimized by frauds.—P.O.R.

In order that our Agents may have no trouble in disposing with our papers, we start the papers in time to have them reach their destination by Saturdays. Of course the papers are sometimes delayed on the road, and we expect our agents to notify us in case such happens to them.

Take the Herald Only $1.50.

SAY MISTER!

Do you read?

Does any one of your family read?

Are you inclined to foster race institutions?

Don't you want to know of the doings of your people else where?

Wouldn't you like to hear a true, impartial and unprejudiced report when you do hear?

Wouldn't you like to read a paper that credits the Negroes with what they do?

Wouldn't you like to read a paper that doesn't delight in showing up the bad deeds laid at the feet of our people and leaving the good ones lay dormant?

Would you like to keep up with the lynching, whipping burning at the stake and outrages brutally heaped upon our law abiding citizens?

Would you like to inspire the intellectuality of your off springs, and crown their heads with wisdom?

Would you like to train them to perfect their wonderful conceptions by having them read good race literature and acquaint themselves with the characteristics of our great Negroes?

Would you like to combine your efforts and help to establish business for the employment of your sons and daughters?

If you have an interest in your children and the race and imbued with the propensities named above, you will send us 8 Yearly subscribers and obtain a copy for yourself One Year free, or send 3 names and obtain the paper One Year for $1.25 each, to R. Emmett Stewart, Ed. and Bus. Man'g'r of THE HERALD Langston City, Okla.

DONT MISS OUR OFFER.

Notice Agents. We would be glad to have the news of your city here to be in the office by Wednesday, and let it be brief and spicy.

Do not be afraid to ask your Post Master to look for your paper because many times the paper is in the office and the post-master don't feel like getting up and looking for it.

You should Subscribe for this paper and get the true reports of current events.

As a general thing, a cheap article is invaluable, but in this instance of the Herald's great reduction that rule ceases to act. This reduction is offered in behalf of the poor people who contemplate immigrating to Oklahoma and make a run in the coming opening for a free home. So subscribe at once.

We don't carry any dead-heads or Credit list, so we hope our agents will bear this fact in mind and don't send us subscribers under those conditions, for they will certainly hit the scrap basket upon their arrival here.

We do not claim to be the greatest Negro journal published in America, but we do claim our rank among the most wide-awake and race developing papers now before the public. Send us your name and we will send you a sample copy.
